IDRAC Business School was founded in 1965. As an accredited school of business, IDRAC enrolls about 6,000 students on 10 campus sites.

Main programmes of study
- Five-year International Grande Ecole program (accredited by the Ministry of Higher Education)
- Three-year bachelor’s program (accredited by the French Ministry of Higher Education on all 7 campuses)
- Three-year bachelor’s program (accredited by the French Ministry of Labor on 2 campuses)
- Postgraduate Program (accredited by the French Ministry of Labor on all 2 campuses)
- Summer programs

Research
Mutations of Renewing Business Models
Since 2011, the IDRAC laboratory Idrac Research concentrate all its teams on a single axis: Renewing Business Models and following the recommendations of the Scientific Council.

Strengths
- a school recognized for quality in France and internationally
- courses that provide significant professional experience
- 100 international partners in Europe and abroad, with more than 40 partner schools and universities

Location
IDRAC Business School is a business school located in ten cities of France: Amiens, Bordeaux, Grenoble, Lille, Lyon, Montpellier, Nantes, Nice, Paris and Toulouse. 5 campuses linked to Europe in Dublin and Cork in Ireland, Barcelona and Santander in Spain and Brno in the Czech Republic.

Member of Campus France Forum
www.ecoles-idrac.com