Created in 1986, the Alliance française Rouen-Normandie, a private institution of higher education offers year round, French as a foreign language (FLE) courses. It hosts more than 850 students from more than 110 countries. It belongs to the international network of Alliances françaises and as such, aims to teach French to foreigners and to promote francophone cultures by fostering cultural exchanges.

Located in the heart of town, the AF Rouen offers both short and extended programmes of general and specialist French. It also organises immersion courses (French as a foreign language classes with host family stay) throughout the year. Its teachers are higher education graduates and specialists in teaching French as a foreign language. Since 2014, the Alliance française Rouen-Normandie is certified by CIEP «Qualité Français Langue Etrangère»

Location
The Alliance française is situated in the historic heart of the beautiful town of Rouen, 2 minutes from the railway station, the Museum of Fine Arts and public transport: metro, bus, taxis.

Located between the busiest sea in the world and the Ile-de-France region, Normandy has many economic, cultural and geographic strengths to make it integral to the national and European economic heart. With widely diverse landscapes and attractive tourist propositions (Mont Saint Michel, Etretat, Giverny, Honfleur, etc.), Normandy highlights its cultural (e.g. Birthplace of Impressionism) and historic (e.g. D-day landing beaches) heritage to attract tourists from around the world.
