

ÉCOLE NATIONALE SUPÉRIEURE DES ARTS DÉCORATIFS (ENSAD)

École
nationale supérieure
des Arts
Décoratifs

Founded in 1766, the École nationale supérieure des Arts Décoratifs (EnsAD) is an institution of higher education under the authority of the French Ministry for Culture. It offers a wealth of intellectual, creative, and artistic opportunities in a multidisciplinary context of partnership and innovation. With an enrolment of 720 students, French and foreign, the school offers a five-year degree program with a specialization in one of ten departments. The EnsAD degree is recognized as a master's level qualification. In addition, EnsadLab, the School's research laboratory, offers several doctoral-level research programs in the arts and in design. The École nationale supérieure des Arts Décoratifs is a member of 'Paris Sciences et Lettres' (PSL Research University). EnsAD is also a member of the Conférence des Grandes Écoles.

◆ MAIN PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

- 10 specializations : interior Architecture, Art, Animation, Multimedia/Graphic Design, Product Design, textile and texture Design, Fashion Design, Printed Image, Photography/Video, Stage Design.

The 5 year degree course is comprised of two sections (3 years + 2 years). The first three years are dedicated to acquiring the fundamentals, as well for initiating the Grand Projet. The final two years are for initiation into research.
