

ATELIER CHARDON SAVARD

Founded in 1988 by a visionary couple in fashion pedagogy, the Atelier Chardon Savard trains young talents, fashion designers, designers and fashion communication experts in Paris, Nantes and Berlin each year.

Located in a neighbourhood renowned for its contemporary edge, the Atelier is a place of creative experimentation with a human dimension in styling, illustration, Innovation (3d), a space for tea-ching pattern-making techniques, volume research, a textile laboratory, with specialised know-how in Knitwear, Trends and Accessories.

Excellence, rigour and creativity allow young graduates to obtain state-certified titles Level II * and Level I  each year. This quality of teaching is carried out by a teaching team of professionals and pedagogues, experts in their disciplines, passionate about transmission.

Entrenched in the professional world, the insertion of its students is a priority in the Atelier: compulsory internships from the first year, a personalized accompaniment, the privileged links of the Atelier and the profession allow students a rate of record placement in luxury houses with designers from ready-to-wear to Haute-Couture.
