

ETPA - ÉCOLES CRÉATIVES

AUZEVILLE - TOLOSANE

ETPA is a french school of Photography and Game Design.

The quality of the education provided within ETPA also depends on the quality of the material and equipment available to students, whether in Photography or Game Design. Believing that it is essential to bring students closer to the realities of their future professions, ETPA has surrounded itself with a team of specialists in Photography and Game Design, as well as renowned speakers. All the assets of the art school are brought together to form creatives immediately operational at the end of their studies.
