MOD'SPE PARIS

MOD'SPE Paris, the Institut Supérieur Spécialisé de la Mode, is a school of fashion marketing that offers educational programs ending at years 3 and 5 of postsecondary study. Established in 1993 on the initiative of professionals affiliated with the the French Women's Ready-to-Wear Federation and with public support through the DEFI (the committee for the development and promotion of apparel), MOD'SPE Paris prepares specialists in high-level fashion marketing for careers in firms producing women's, men's, and children's apparel, sportswear, lingerie, cosmetics, perfumes, and luxury products and accessories. A private institution of higher education with nonprofit status, MOD'SPE Paris imparts to the managers it trains the essential values of professionalism, innovation, initiative, and rigorous commitment. MOD'SPE Paris's internship and careers office has close relations with more than 500 firms.

◆ MAIN PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

MOD'SPE Paris offers 3-year Bachelor and 2-year MSC programs which cover the diverse careers and positions available in the fashion sector (marketing, sales, communication, international trade, entrepreneurship...).

Upon successful completion, students obtain a state-recognized degree which is registered with the Répertoire National de la Certification Professionnel (RNCP). Each year, students earn 60 ECTS (European Credits Transfer System) which provide them with significant international mobility.

Foreign students can follow the full time program with an internship. The international track is taught entirely in English.

◆ STRENGTHS

Mod'Spé Paris benefits from its affiliation with the French Women's Ready-to-Wear Federation. All members of the school's faculty are active professionals, which enables Mod'Spé to keep up with occupational changes in the sector. The school also collaborates closely with the OPCALIA TMC career observatory. Mod'Spé

Paris's extensive network of corporate partners facilitates the recognition of its diplomas among leaders in the fashion and apparel sectors.

◆ LOCATION

The School MOD'SPE Paris occupies a 900 m2 mansion in 9 rue Bleue in Paris's 9th arrondissement. Both functional and historic, the school's building offers space to grow both domestically and internationally. The 9th arrondissement, Paris's historic textile quarter, remains a very active center for fashion firms. Close by Le Printemps and Galeries Lafayette, the location offers easy access to important sites in the fashion world and to a constant stream of esteemed visitors from France and abroad.
