Since 1905, ICN has been the leading Business School in eastern France, in the heart of Europe. The school’s identity and growth are based on the links between management, technology, and art in today’s economy and the economy of tomorrow. A member of the business school section of the Conférence des Grandes Écoles and of the Erasmus testing consortium, ICN is also a part of the ARTEM alliance established in 1999 with two other renowned institutions in the region (Mines Nancy and the Ecole Nationale Supérieure d’Art de Nancy, ENSA). ICN is EQUIS and AMBA accredited and is a member of AACSB. The school’s distinctive brand is based on the personal development of its students, stimulated through close support from the school, the cultivation of openness to other cultures, and significant practice working in teams and on concrete projects.

LOCATION
3 MODERN, STATE-OF-THE-ART CAMPUSES WITH A BOLD DESIGN
Whether it’s Paris La Defense, Nancy or Berlin, our campuses are in strategic locations close to businesses and areas of economic activity.
PARIS ICN Business School is situated in the heart of the La Defense business district, alongside the head offices of major CAC 40 corporations.
NANCY With almost 48,000 students (1 in 3 residents), Nancy has everything it takes to make student life easy: free access to a vast array of museums and sports facilities, an efficient public transport system, numerous university residences with accommodation costing less than many major French cities. It also has a vibrant night-life, with a wide selection of concerts, bars, and clubs right in the heart of the city. Situated nearby Germany, Belgium, and Luxembourg, and in midway between Paris and Strasbourg, the city of Nancy is naturally open to Europe.
BERLIN The capital of Germany and the country’s largest city with 3.5 million inhabitants, Berlin shares all of ICN’s values: it is a tolerant and multicultural city which is committed to tackling current and future challenges.
