The Leonard de Vinci Management school (EMLV) belongs to the Leonard de Vinci Group, founded in 1995. This group of 3 schools (ESILV, EMLV, IIM) is located in the heart of the business district of Paris. Among the school's strengths are digital, marketing, HR, finance, innovation and entrepreneurship. The EMLV is recognized by the State, its diploma is referred to BAC + 5 by the Ministry of Higher Education and Research, and gives it the Master degree. In 2018-2019, the EMLV has ranked as the 23rd best company's strategy school in France and among the top 5 post- baccalaureate management schools in France (program in 5 years after the baccalauréat). International openness is a key issue for the Leonard de Vinci Group (EMLV is a member of AACSB, EFMD, AMBA and Campus France). The school is also a member of the Conférences des Grandes Écoles (CGE). This year, the Leonard de Vinci Group welcomes more than 5000 students in its three schools (School of Management - EMLV, the engineering school - ESILV, the internet and multimedia school - IIM), of which 16% are international. Engineers, managers and designers learn to live and work together beyond the boundaries of their training. The Leonard de Vinci Group offers exchange programs and double degrees in more than 80 partner universities in 5 continents.
