

ALBI

INU CHAMPOLLION

INSTITUT NATIONAL UNIVERSITAIRE JEAN-FRANÇOIS CHAMPOLLION

The National Institute of Champollion University (formerly known as Jean-François Champollion University) is a cultural, scientific and professional public institution.

Its head office is in Albi and it is also implanted in two other campuses : Rodez and Castres.

Since December 2015, the Institute is an associate member of the Federal University of Toulouse Midi-Pyrénées.

◆ MAIN PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

- Arts, Literature and Languages
- Law, Economy, Management
- Humanities and Social Sciences
- Sciences, Technology, Health
- Sciences, Sports and other physical activities
- Engineering School

◆ RESEARCH

- Biology and Toxicology of Bioactive Substances
- Diagnosis of non-equilibrium plasmas
- Information technology and health information systems
- Physiology of posture and movement
- Serious Game Research Lab

◆ STRENGTHS

- Human-sized University
- Proximity and open-mindedness
- National Ranking : 3rd best success rate for Bachelor's degree

◆ LOCATION

South-West of France
1 hour from Toulouse

IDENTITY FORM

- ◆ Precise name of the institution
INU Champollion - Institut National Universitaire Jean-François Champollion
- ◆ Type of institution
Scientific Public Institution
- ◆ City where the main campus is located
Albi
- ◆ Number of students
3949
- ◆ Percentage or number of international students
10%
- ◆ Type and level of qualifications awarded
Degrees and Master's degree
- ◆ French language courses
Yes - 52 hours of French as a foreign language course for foreign students (Erasmus)
- ◆ Programs for international students
No
- ◆ Programs in English
No
- ◆ Registration fees/year (for information only)
Bachelor's Degree : 404.10 €
Master's degree : 476.10 €
- ◆ Postal address
INU Champollion
Place de Verdun
81012 Albi Cedex 9

<https://www.univ-jfc.fr/>

Member of Campus France Forum