ALLIANCE FRANÇAISE DE LYON

Every year, the Alliance française Lyon - center for Unesco welcomes over 2500 students from about 130 countries. The school presents an atmosphere of exceptional teaching and intercultural dialogue. The AFL belongs to an international network of over 900 Alliance françaises present in 137 countries. The AFL offers French courses at every level, based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. The certified and experienced professors are specialists of French as a Foreign Language (FLE). The discovery of French culture, of French-speaking cultures and of the values of UNESCO is inherent to our teaching, particularly through visits in cultural and patrimonial institutions of Lyon.
