ALLIANCE FRANÇAISE PARIS ÎLE-DE-FRANCE

The Alliance Française is a prestigious organization founded in 1883 to spread French language and culture throughout the world. Today it is a global network that serves 491,000 students in 132 countries. Located in the heart of the French capital, the Alliance Française Paris Ile-de-France is a true international meeting place where each year nearly 8,000 students from 160 different countries come to learn French. Passionate about French language and culture, the 80 teachers of the Alliance Française Paris Ile-de-France all hold postsecondary degrees and are specialists in the teaching of French as a foreign language.

◆ MAIN PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

The Alliance Française Paris Ile-de-France allows you to learn on your own terms and at your own pace. Because every student receives individual attention, your current level of proficiency will be assessed in light of your particular requirements and goals. All Alliance Française courses are aligned with levels of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (from A1 to C2). You can integrate a course every Monday throughout the year. The Alliance Française Paris Ile-de-France is proud to have earned the Qualité FLE label conferred by the French ministries of Culture and Communication, Higher Education and Research, and Foreign and European Affairs. The Alliance received the highest possible scores on all five criteria evaluated (customer relations, facilities, faculty, curriculum, and management). Each year the Alliance Française Paris Ile-de-France provides initial or continuing training to almost 2,300 instructors from throughout the world in Alliance Française facilities or in the instructors' own institutions. The Alliance works closely with 600 firms to teach French to their employees abroad. It also partners with many schools and universities.
