ALLIANCE FRANÇAISE DE ROUEN - NORMANDIE

Created in 1986, the Alliance française Rouen-Normandie, a private institution of higher education, offers year round French as a foreign language (FLE) courses. It hosts more than 850 students from more than 110 countries. It belongs to the international network of Alliances françaises and as such, aims to teach French to foreigners and to promote francophone cultures by fostering cultural exchanges.

Located in the heart of town, the AF Rouen offers both short and extended programmes of general and specialist French.

It also organises immersion courses (French as a foreign language classes with host family stay) throughout the year. Its teachers are higher education graduates and specialists in teaching French as a foreign language.

Since 2014, the Alliance française Rouen-Normandie is certified by CIEP 'Qualité Française Langue Etrangère'.
