CIEL BRETAGNE BREST

Ciel Bretagne
Ecole de français langue étrangère
un établissement

Ciel Bretagne, founded in 1987, is run by the Brest Chamber of Commerce and Industry (CCIMBO).

The school is located in a magnificent 19th-century manor overlooking the Brest harbour.

Each year, Ciel Bretagne hosts some 700 students from more than 50 different countries.

All faculty members are specialised in the teaching of French as a foreign language. The school was granted the label 'Qualité français langue étrangère'.

◆ MAIN PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

The school offers:

- . general French courses,
  - . specialised courses (business, French for tourism...),
  - . preparation for higher studies,
  - . training courses for professors,
  - . French + sailing and French + Breton culture
- Courses designed to meet the group's needs (juniors, university students, adults) are also possible with courses in the morning and excursions and sport activities in the afternoon.

In summer, group leaders organise excursions and visits to discover Brittany.

A variety of housing possibilities are available:

- . in host families (for full language immersion),
- . at the university residence hall,
- . in flats in downtown.

Thanks to partnerships with the following institutions: Université de Bretagne Occidentale (UBO), the University Institute of Technology (IUT) of Brest and Quimper, Ecole européenne supérieure d'Arts de Brest (EESAB), Brest Business School, National School of Engineers of Brest (ENIB), Telecom Bretagne and National School of Advanced Techniques (ENSTA), Ciel Bretagne gives particular care to preparation for higher education.

◆ STRENGTHS

- Classes beginning each Monday (except beginners)
- Small groups (maximum 12 students)
- Special attention to each student's progress
- Magnificent site in a lakeside park

- Friendly environment in an international context
- Cultural and touristic activities in summertime
- Possibilities of sailing activities around the school

◆ LOCATION

Located in the west of Europe, Ciel Bretagne gives students easy access to Brest and Western Brittany. Brittany is highly esteemed for the quality of its environment and the beauty of its landscapes.
