

ANNECY

CILFA

CENTRE INTERNATIONAL DE LANGUE FRANÇAISE D'ANNÉCY

CILFA is a French language school located in exceptional surroundings between mountains and lake in the historic town of Anancy. CILFA is located less than 40 km from Geneva.

CILFA specializes in teaching the French language to foreign students of all levels. Regardless of your nationality or level of French, CILFA, Centre International de Langue Française d'Annecy (Anancy International Center of French Language) offers courses and activities in French as a foreign language, as well as DELF exam preparation classes.

Since June 1999, CILFA has been an examination center for DELF and DALF certification thanks to an agreement with the "Université Savoie Mont Blanc".

◆ MAIN PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

- French language and civilisation
- DELF preparation

◆ STRENGTHS

- Small sized school.
- No more than 12 people per class.
- Official DILF/DELF/DALF exam center.
- Label 'French Foreign Language Quality': in 2015, CILFA received the highest rating of 15 stars regarding the Qualité français langue étrangère certification.
- Free workshops and services (tutoring; phonetics; conversation; Wi-Fi; school library, assistance with accommodation).

◆ LOCATION

CILFA is located near Anancy Lake.

An average-sized city (80,000 inhabitants) surrounded by mountains and renowned for the pure waters of its glacier lake, Anancy is the ideal location to combine study with tourism.

Anancy-le-Vieux has a commanding view of the lake, less than three kilometers from the old city of Anancy.

In the afternoon or on week-ends, you can water-ski or sail on the lake, indulge in the joys of skiing, hiking or climbing and discover a region that offers a very rich cultural heritage.

IDENTITY FORM

◆ Precise name of the institution
CILFA (Centre International de Langue Française d'Annecy)

◆ Type of institution
- Association law 1901
- Private higher education establishment
- Organization of continuing education

◆ City where the main campus is located
Annecy

◆ Number of students
204 en 2019

◆ Percentage or number of international students
100%

◆ Type and level of qualifications awarded
French as a foreign language diplomas: DILF, DELF and DALF
The DELF A2 is a diploma certifying the level of French mastery required to obtain a resident card or resident card with the endorsement "long-term resident - EU" (Order of February 21, 2018).

The DELF B1 is a diploma certifying the level of French mastery required for candidates for French nationality (Decree 2011-1265 of October 11, 2011).

The DELF B2 exempts the holder from any linguistic testing for enrollment in French universities (Order of January 18, 2008). Please note that the level required may vary according to establishment and/or study program requirements.

◆ French language courses
Yes - FRENCH COURSES IN SMALL GROUPS COMPRISED OF NO MORE THAN 12 STUDENTS
Our French courses are taught by certified instructors who are all used to teaching French as a foreign language. The small student-to-instructor ratio encourages individualized instruction so that each student can improve rapidly according to her/his needs and desires. Particular emphasis on communication.

All our French courses are based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

Upon your arrival at school, on the first day, you will be given a written and oral placement test which will determine your group for the French lessons.

A certificate of attendance is delivered at the end of the session.

If you wish to, you can take the DELF exams at CILFA during the academic year at the end of your session in March, June and December.

◆ Programs for international students
Yes - Methodology
"Approche actionnelle". The four skills (oral and written comprehension, oral and written productions) are taught in a balanced way while focusing on interactions, in particular during group work.

Numerous learning activities are offered: role play, debates, presentations, authentic French documents, songs, DVD excerpts, games, etc. Writing a diary is also encouraged, notably for levels A1 and A2 (individual correction available on request).

CILFA offers courses all year to A1, A2, B1, B2 levels. (C1 and C2 levels on demand).

CILFA is a center for the DILF exam (Diplôme Initial de Langue Française), the DELF exam (Diplôme d'Études en Langue Française) and the DALF exam (Diplôme Approfondi de Langue Française).

◆ Programs in English
No

◆ Registration fees/year
(for information only)
Prices from 153 euros/week for a 15 hour/week course, or 202 euros/week for a 20 hours/week course.

◆ Postal address
CILFA - 3 Rue des Martyrs, Anancy-le-Vieux - 74940 ANNÉCY - France

cilfa.fr

Member of Campus France Forum