Nestling between lake and mountains in the beautiful town of Annecy, the CILFA welcomes adults of all levels to study French language and culture. The size of the school fosters a friendly atmosphere thanks to the variety of nationalities and ages.

A private higher education institution partnered through a convention to the ‘Université Savoie Mont Blanc’ since 1999, the CILFA is an examination center for the DILF, DELF and DALF diplomas and gives students the chance to sit such exams several times a year.

◆ MAIN PROGRAMMES OF STUDY
- French language and civilisation
- DELF preparation

◆ STRENGTHS
- Small sized school.
- No more than 12 people per class.
- Official DILF/DELF/DALF exam center.
- Label ‘French Foreign Language Quality’: in 2015, CILFA received the highest rating of 15 stars regarding the Qualité français langue étrangère certification.
- Free workshops and services (tutoring: phonetics: conversation: Wi-Fi: school library; assistance with accommodation).

◆ LOCATION
The exceptional setting of Annecy at the heart of the French Alps – famous for its pure-water lake – ideal for combining learning with sightseeing. Here you can cycle around the lake, practise water and mountain sports, go climbing or paragliding and set off in discovery of a region steeped in cultural heritage.

What’s more, unforgettable day trips to Switzerland, Italy and Chamonix Mont-Blanc can be organised as they’re so near.
