international french school

Founded in 1991, Langue Onze Toulouse is a school of French as a foreign language. It provides a warm welcome and attentive support to international students and others seeking training in the French language, often in connection with a postsecondary education in France. Recognized by the French government through the label Qualité Français Langue Etrangère, our center is also accredited by the Groupement FLE, a professional standard for schools of French as a foreign language. Throughout the year, Langue Onze Toulouse offers a wide range of group and individual programs in French as a foreign language for students at all levels of proficiency as defined by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (levels A1 to C2) and for a variety of goals and purposes. Our teaching team is made up of trainers who, in addition to being native speakers, are qualified and experienced in the interactive teaching methods used to develop learners' communication skills. Of particular relevance to the problems and challenges of mobile students, they are also trained in the teaching of French for specific purposes and specialized French, enabling them to prepare students for success in any area of postsecondary education.

◆ MAIN PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

- General French programs throughout the year at all levels (A1 C1): Intensive (26 lessons of 45 minutes each per week): Standard french course (20 lessons of 45 minutes each per week)
- Long-term course (6 months or more): intensive training in general French + taking of TCF (or DELF) + preparation for an academic program at the postsecondary level
- Programs in French for specific purposes, including French for academic study
- Programs in specialized French: Preparation for the professional world, French for tourism, business, science and technology, law, medicine, and diplomacy.
- French teacher trainings
- Test preparation programs: TCF, DELF and DALF

- Plus special programs: language learning + Internship (with firm): program offering credit for work done elsewhere (in partnership with specific universities): Leonardo mobility program including a corporate internship component.
- A monthly program of cultural, social, and/or sporting activities
- Assistance with housing: lodging with host families (half board), rooms in private homes with kitchen privileges, studio apartments, student residence and apartment hotels
- Personal assistance with major administrative tasks (registering with the prefecture of police, visa matters, banking, telecommunications, transportation)
- Monitoring of progress and help with practical matters through a schedule of monthly meetings

◆ STRENGTHS

- Individual attention, services, and support
- Small class size (6 to 12 learners), enabling rapid progress
- French government quality-assurance label (Qualité Français Langue Etrangère) and accreditation by Groupement FLE
- A teaching team that keeps its skills up to date through continuing professional education
- Language exchanges through TANDEM® partnership system

◆ LOCATION

Langue Onze Toulouse is located in the historic center of Toulouse, the rose city in southwest France, close to major tourist attractions and the commercial center. France's fourth-largest city, Toulouse is a dynamic and cosmopolitan urban center that is home to cutting-edge industry (aeronautics, biotechnologies, and new technologies) while also enjoying a rich cultural heritage, equidistant from the Pyrenees, the Atlantic coast, and the Mediterranean coast.
