The Robert de Sorbon Foundation is a private higher education institution, and manages the Cours de civilisation française de la Sorbonne, created in 1919 and therefore celebrating their first centenary. The Cours de civilisation française de la Sorbonne teach French language and civilization - in immersion in Paris - to nearly 4,000 foreign students per year, and at all levels.

◆ MAIN PROGRAMMES OF STUDY
- 6 fields « Language and Civilization » according to 6 levels of !Cadre européen de référence pour les langues! (A1, A2, B1, B2, C1, C2)
- Business French courses
- Preparatory classes for admission at the University

◆ RESEARCH
Research in Didactics, which has led to FLE series at Belin Éditions (4 titles published).

◆ STRENGTHS
More than 50 permanent professors specialized in FLE, including 15 professors specialized in Phonetics.
Important link between Language, Culture and Civilization.
The CCFS has obtained the Quality label FLE, with the higher grades (15 stars out of 15)
Examination center for DELF (B1 & B2), DALF (C1), TCF tests, and DFP.

◆ LOCATION
Paris
The Cours de civilisation française de la Sorbonne are located in the center of Paris, between Montparnasse and the Luxembourg garden, not far from the Latin Quarter, Metro Vavin (line 4) or Raspail (line 6).