STUDY IN FRANCE

UNIVERSITÉ FRANCO-ALLEMANDE (UFA)

SARREBRUCK

The Franco-German University (FGU) is a network of 208 affiliated universities, universities of applied sciences, grandes écoles and écoles in France, Germany and a number of third countries providing 186 integrated bi-national and tri-national degree programmes.

The programmes offered by the FGU cover the following fields of study: law, economics, humanities and social sciences, natural sciences, IT, engineering, teacher training and architecture

Around 6,400 students are currently enrolled and at the end of your course awarded a double degree.

The FGU supports the students' stay abroad with a monthly allowance of €300.

◆ MAIN PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

FGU covers almost all fields of study: engineering, natural sciences, economics, law, social sciences and humanities, as well as teacher training, architecture and IT.

IDENTITY FORM

◆ Precise name of the institution
Université franco-allemande

◆ Type of institution

◆ City where the main campus is located
Sarrebruck

◆ Number of students
plus de 6 400 étudiants et 500 docteur*es

◆ Percentage or number of international students
Parallèlement aux étudiant*es français*es, allemand*es et franco-allemand*es, l'UFA accueille également des étudiant*es d'autres nationalités (environ 10 % des étudiant*es UFA).

◆ French language courses
Yes

◆ Programs for international students
Yes

◆ Programs in English
Yes

◆ Postal address
Université franco-allemande
Villa Europa, Kohlweg 7, D-66123 Saarbrücken

dfh-ufa.org/

CAMPUS FRANCE