Created in 1971 by Gaston Lenôtre, the Ecole Lenôtre welcomes every year more than 3,000 students, men and women coming from all over France and more than 100 countries, to develop their knowledge and learn about excellence in gastronomy.

Ecole Lenôtre offer trainings for professionals to increase their skills and techniques. Professional courses last from 2 to 5 days and are about pastry, cuisine, ice cream, baking, viennoiseries, sugar art, catering, charcuterie...

Ecole Lenôtre also offers training for beginners who wish to train themselves to become a pastry or cooking chef. We have two trainings:
- A 25-week training in Pastry arts (21 weeks of training + 4 weeks internship)
- A 25-week training in Culinary arts (21 weeks of training + 4 weeks internship)

Ecole Lenôtre offer these two trainings in both French or English. There are two sessions per year: in September and in March in which we accept a maximum of 12 people.

Ecole Lenôtre only offers hands-on trainings.
