Created in 2011, IOB Bordeaux International French Osteopathic Medical School, private higher education school, trains students to the diploma of osteopath, with a strong focus on quality. Built on the objective of training highly qualified, competent and responsible professionals, IOB has chosen to develop a model of a human-sized school where learning is demanding and the follow-up of each student is personalized.

MAIN PROGRAMMES OF STUDY
Students who join the IOB for initial training must be follow 4860 hours of theoretical and practical tuition. Distributed over 5 years of study, the teaching revolves around the acquisition of knowledge and skills osteopathic, composed of 7 areas and clinical training:
- Fundamental Sciences
- Medical signs of changes in the state of health
- Human sciences, social sciences, management and law
- Founding principles and models of osteopathy
- Osteopathy practice
- Working methods and tools
- Development of osteopathic skills

RESEARCH
Preparation and presentation of a thesis in fifth year.

STRENGTHS
- Accredited by French Ministry of Health
- Small class group
- Excellent individual guidance and support
- Integrated educational clinic

LOCATION
Bordeaux - France

http://www.iob-bordeaux.com

Member of Campus France Forum