UNIVERSITÉ ANGERS

Founded in the Middle Ages, the Université d'Angers was reestablished in its present form in 1971. A comprehensive university, the Université d'Angers offers a full range of traditional academic programs, as well as many innovative choices. The university consists of 3 campuses in Angers (Belle-Beille, St Serge, and Santé), as well as branches in Cholet, Saumur and les Sables d'Olonne. More than 24.000 degree students choose from among the university's varied career-oriented programs.

◆ MAIN PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

- The university's major faculties (academic divisions) are letters, languages, and humanities; law, economics, and management; science; Health; ESTHUA (Tourism, hotel administration and culture).
- The university's technical institute (IUT) consists of 6 departments: public administration and business management, bioengineering, merchandising, engineering, mechanics and industrial automation, electrical engineering and industrial computing, social work
- Polytech Angers, institute of engineering science and technology, is affiliated with the university
- Institut d'Administration des Entreprises (IAE, Institute of Business Administration).

◆ RESEARCH

- 5 research clusters (health, plant science, materials, maths-STIC, Languages, Humanities and Social Sciences).
- 4 research domains (information and communication sciences and technologies: mathematics: humanities and social sciences: law, economics, and management). The university participates in several national competitiveness clusters (plant cluster, Atlantic biotherapy cluster, child cluster).

◆ STRENGTHS

Services are a source of strength. Consider the following examples.

- French as a foreign language: The university's French language center offers courses for beginners as well as intermediate and advanced speakers. The center is a member of ADCUEFE, the French association of university centers for the study of French as a foreign language.
- InfoCampus is the information office opened to all University students.
- European and international orientation.
- Quality of campus life: Students also enjoy access to excellent athletic facilities. The university's preventive medicine and wellness service is dedicated to the physical, mental, and social welfare of students.

◆ LOCATION

In the heart of the Loire valley, just 90 minutes from Paris, the city of Angers has a rich historic and artistic legacy. Highlights include the tapestries of the Apocalypse and of the Song of the World, the château of King René, museums, and the medieval city.
