

PESSAC

UNIVERSITÉ BORDEAUX MONTAIGNE

Bordeaux Montaigne University is an ancient institution whose roots date back to the fifteenth century. It enrolls about over 18,000 students and employs around 700 teachers and 550 staff members.

◆ MAIN PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

Training at the Bordeaux Montaigne University is offered through 3 teaching and research faculties and their components:

Humanities (5 departments):

- Arts
- History
- History of art and archaeology
- Literature
- Philosophy

Languages and civilization (13 departments):

- Arabic studies
- Basque studies
- Chinese studies
- German studies
- Iberian, and Ibero-American studies
- Italian Studies
- Japanese studies
- Korean studies
- Portuguese studies
- Slavic studies
- Studies of the English-speaking world
- Applied foreign languages (English + 1 chosen language: Arabic, Chinese, German, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish)

- Language sciences

Geography and communication (3 departments):

- Geography, space and land sciences
- Information and communication sciences (ISIC)
- Regional development, tourism, and urban planning (IATU)

Institutes

- Bordeaux Aquitaine institute of journalism (IJBA)
- IUT Bordeaux Montaigne (university-based institute of technology)

Departments

- Department of physical education and sports (DAPS)
- Department of French as a foreign language (DEFLE)

CFA Bordeaux Montaigne

Bordeaux Montaigne University campus-site based in Agen: Department of Applied Languages (English-Spanish)

◆ RESEARCH

Main research topics:

- Ancient and medieval archaeology
- Archaeological materials
- Communication and performing arts
- Basque language and culture
- Water geosciences, imagery and the environment
- History, art history
- Geography
- Philosophy
- Foreign languages and civilizations
- Literature
- The Spanish and Latin American world

◆ STRENGTHS

The department of French as a foreign language (DEFLE) enrolls some 1,700 students (<https://defle.u-bordeaux-montaigne.fr/en/>)

- An edition activity ("Les presses Universitaires de Bordeaux")
- A center for distance education that broadcasts courses to 37 countries.

◆ LOCATION

The university is located on the Pessac campus, one of the largest in Europe, easily connected to the center of Bordeaux by public transportation (tramway and bus).

IDENTITY FORM

◆ Precise name of the institution

Université Bordeaux Montaigne

◆ Type of institution

Public

◆ City where the main campus is located

Pessac

◆ Number of students

18000

◆ Percentage or number of international students

8%

◆ Type and level of qualifications awarded

LMD - Other national diplomas - Institution-specific diplomas

◆ French language courses

Yes - Department of French as a Second Language: <https://defle.u-bordeaux-montaigne.fr/>

◆ Programs for international students

Yes

◆ Programs in English

Yes

◆ Registration fees/year (for information only)

National fees

◆ Postal address

Université Bordeaux Montaigne -
Direction des Relations Internationales
Domaine Universitaire, 33607 Pessac
cedex

www.u-bordeaux-montaigne.fr/en/index.html

Member of Campus France Forum