Bordeaux Montaigne University is an ancient institution whose roots date back to the fifteenth century. It enrolls about 17,662 students, has a faculty of 689, and employs a staff of 562.

◆ MAIN PROGRAMMES OF STUDY
Training at the Université Michel de Montaigne Bordeaux 3 is offered through 3 teaching and research faculties and their components

The humanities faculty has 5 departments:
- Arts
- History
- History of art and archaeology
- Letters
- Philosophy

Languages and civilization: The faculty of languages and civilizations consists of 13 departments:
- Arabic studies
- Basque studies
- Chinese studies
- German studies
- Iberian, and Ibero-American studies
- Italian Studies
- Japanese studies
- Korean studies
- Portuguese studies
- Slavic studies
- Studies of the English-speaking world
- Applied foreign languages (English + 1 chosen language: Arabic, Chinese, German, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish)
- Language sciences

The geography and communication faculty has 3 departments:
- Geography, space and land sciences
- Information and communication sciences (ISIC)
- Regional development, tourism, and urban planning (IATU)

Institutes
Bordeaux Aquitaine institute of journalism (IJBA)
Michel de Montaigne university-based institute of technology

Departments
Department of physical education and sports (DAPS)
Department of French as a foreign language (DEFLE)

CFA Bordeaux Montaigne
Agen: Bordeaux Montaigne branch in Agen

◆ RESEARCH
- Ancient and medieval archaeology
- Archaeological materials
- Communication and the performing arts
- Basque language and culture
- Water geosciences, imagery and the environment
- History, art history
- Geography
- Philosophy
- Foreign languages and civilizations
- Literature
- The Spanish and Latin American world

◆ STRENGTHS
The department of French as a foreign language (DEFLE) enrolls some 1,700 students (https://defle.u-bordeaux-montaigne.fr/en/)
- An edition activity (Les presses Universitaires de Bordeaux)
- A center for distance education that broadcasts courses to 37 countries.

◆ LOCATION
The university is located on the Pessac campus, one of the largest in Europe, easily reached by public transportation from the center of Bordeaux.

◆ IDENTIFICATION FORM
- Precise name of the institution
  Université Bordeaux Montaigne
- Type of institution
  Public
- City where the main campus is located
  Pessac
- Number of students
  17,662
- Percentage or number of international students
  15%
- Type and level of qualifications awarded
  LMD - Other national diplomas - Institution-specific diploma
- French language courses
  Yes
- Programs for international students
  Yes
- Programs in English
  Yes
- Registration fees/year (for information only)
  National fees
- Postal address
  Université Bordeaux Montaigne - Direction des Relations Internationales
  Domaine Universitaire, 33607 Pessac cedex