

DIJON

UNIVERSITÉ DE BOURGOGNE

The University of Burgundy offers study and research programmes in all scientific disciplines, including health sciences. The university consists of 16 departments: 8 faculties, 3 schools of which 2 are engineering schools, as well as 5 institutes, including 1 which is devoted to viticulture and oenology. The student body is made up of 34,000 people, amongst which more than 2,900 are international students coming from 120 different countries.

The university offers:

- short professional programmes (2-3 years) leading to a DUT or licence professionnelle (Vocational Bachelor's degrees);
  - longer university programmes (3, 5, or 8 years) leading to a Bachelor's or Master's degree, or PhD);
  - engineering degree programmes (5 years);
  - international programmes (such as Franco-German programmes "cursus intégrés" and other joint degrees with partners from different continents);
  - several University-specific programmes (DU);
  - specialised programmes to teach French as a foreign language;
  - English-taught programmes.
- All programmes carry credit (ECTS).

◆ MAIN PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

- Administration - Law
- Economics - Management - Marketing
- Arts - Literature - Languages - Culture - Communication
- Humanities and social sciences
- Sciences and technology - Health
- Sport and physical education

◆ RESEARCH

The University of Burgundy's scientific research programmes are organised into 6 major groups :

- Food and environment:
- Health and molecular engineering:

- Photonics and advanced materials:
- Learning and care:
- Heritage and territories:
- Vine and wine.

uB is home to 32 research units as well as 6 doctoral schools which welcome some 1,000 PhD students, of which 39 % are international students.

◆ STRENGTHS

The International Centre for French Studies (Centre international d'études françaises - CIEF) enrolls more than 1,000 students in French language programmes during the summer and academic year.

The University provides an excellent technical and digital environment, offers campus facilities housing and more than 50 different sports activities, as well as a wide range of social and cultural events and special-interest societies.

The University welcomes international students and encourages both their integration and success. For example the University holds welcome days, an international week, free French courses at the Language centre, tutoring by French students and has a central office for administrative requirements.

◆ LOCATION

The main campus of the University of Burgundy is in Dijon, the capital of the Burgundy-Franche-Comté region, and is a large green space which borders the city centre.

With a population of 252,000, the Dijon metropolitan area is 1 hour and 40 minutes from Paris by high-speed train and 2 hours from Lyon. It lies at the intersection of several major highways. Five regional campuses are located in Chalon-sur-Saône, Mâcon, Le Creusot, Auxerre, and Nevers.

The Burgundy-Franche-Comté region is rich in history and culture, particularly when it comes to gastronomy and wine-making.

IDENTITY FORM

◆ Precise name of the institution

Université de Bourgogne

◆ Type of institution

Public

◆ City where the main campus is located

Dijon

◆ Number of students

34 000

◆ Percentage or number of international students

2 900

◆ Type and level of qualifications awarded

Bachelor's, Vocational Bachelor's degree, short Vocational Bachelor's programmes, Master's, PhD, University specific programmes.

◆ French language courses

Yes - French language courses are organised at the International Centre for French Studies and also at the Language Centre.

◆ Programs for international students

Yes - Degree-seeking students can enrol in regular study programmes while exchange students can enrol in joint degrees, Erasmus+ programme, BCI exchange programme with Québec and other international cooperation agreements.

◆ Programs in English

Yes - Several study programmes are taught entirely or partially in English.

◆ Registration fees/year (for information only)

172 euros/year for Bachelor's.

246 euros/year for Master's.

608 euros/year for degree in engineering.

Student and Campus Life Contribution: 92

euros/year.

Specific fees for some study programmes in English.

◆ Postal address

Maison de l'université - Esplanade Erasme - BP 27877 - 21078 Dijon cedex

<http://www.u-bourgogne.fr/>

Member of Campus France Forum / Member of CampusArt