Université
Paris Nanterre

The University Paris Nanterre (UPN) is a public institution whose core missions are education and research. It is characterised by its multidisciplinary approach and its openness to the surrounding area and world.

The school has four sites: Nanterre, Ville-d'Avray, Saint-Cloud and La Défense. The Nanterre site is unique in the Paris region: a 32-hectare 'green' campus offering exceptional facilities for sports, cultural activities and scientific documentation.

University Paris Nanterre is also a member of networks at all levels, including Campus Condorcet, Alliance Paris Lumières and the European Alliance EDUC.

◆ MAIN PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

University Paris Nanterre offers a rich and diversified range of courses in the four main subject areas: Arts-Literature-Languages, Law-Economics-Business, Humanities and Social Sciences and Sciences-Technology-Health.

Alongside its single-discipline programmes (Bachelor's and Master's degrees), the school also offers original selective multi-disciplinary programmes, such as Double Bachelor's degrees, Double Diplomas and Master's programmes in Engineering.

The Master's programmes are designed with a dual focus on the role of research in teaching and the professional integration of students.

◆ RESEARCH

Research is organised around 6 Doctoral Schools and 43 research laboratories. Approximately 1,300 doctoral students, including 145 under international co-supervision or co-direction.

◆ STRENGTHS

-An innovative teaching programme with original international and intercultural courses, such as: the first Applied Foreign Languages course (LEA), bilingual courses - Law/Language and Economics/Language, and modern humanities studies: Economics/Sociology, Sociology/History, History/

History of Art, Humanities/Performing Arts/History of Art.

- Collaboration with the business world.
- The presence on campus of real sports facilities, which are an exception in the French university world, contributes to the brand image of University Paris Nanterre. The UPN also has facilities and structures conducive to cultural activities. Finally, a great deal of effort has been made in terms of accommodation, catering and student community life.

◆ LOCATION

Located close to La Défense, Europe's largest business district, and 15 minutes from the centre of Paris by public transport.
