

PERPIGNAN

UNIVERSITÉ PERPIGNAN

The Université de Perpignan Via Domitia (UPVD) is a comprehensive yet intimate institution that is dynamic, accessible, and open to the world, especially neighboring Catalonia.

- 9,500 students
- 23% of international students
- 120 nationalities in the student body
- +100 international cooperation agreements with 36 countries
- 140 Erasmus+ agreements
- 3 double degrees
- 1 Erasmus Mundus Masters
- 19% PhDs double degrees

◆ MAIN PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

- 5 faculties :Law and economics (SJE)
- Literature and humanities (LSH) - Exact and experimental sciences (SEE) - International faculty for comparative law in francophone states (FIDEF)
- 3 institutes: Institute of business administration (IAE) - University institute of technology (IUT)
- Franco-Catalan border institute (IFCT)
- 1 engineer' school in renewable energy
- A university center for French-language training

◆ RESEARCH

2 doctoral departments in the humanities and social sciences (InterMed) and sciences (energy and environment)

◆ STRENGTHS

- International engagement: The university's determined reciprocal mobility policy has contributed to the internationalization of its educational programs, notably through the adoption of double-degree programs, and to the amplification of its research activities through strong participation in European programs, integrated projects, and networks of excellence.
- The international office assists new students from the arrival and all along their stay
- University Centre for French Studies
- An international Mentoring to facilitate the intergration of foreign students

◆ LOCATION

Located on France's Mediterranean coast close to the Pyrenees and Spain, Université de Perpignan enjoys an ideal environment. With a population of 120,000, Perpignan is the southernmost city in France, located 3 hours from Lyon, 5 hours from Paris, and 1.5 hours from Barcelona by high-speed train. Students enjoy the exceptional climate and geography of the city and region (more than 300 days of sunshine per year). A rich cultural heritage and convivial campus make this Mediterranean city an ideal academic environment. Université de Perpignan provides a warm welcome for international students.

IDENTITY FORM

- ◆ Precise name of the institution
Université Perpignan
- ◆ Type of institution
Public
- ◆ City where the main campus is located
Perpignan
- ◆ Number of students
9 500
- ◆ Percentage or number of international students
23%
- ◆ Type and level of qualifications awarded
28 Licence programs - 19 Licence Professionnelle programs - 30 Master's programs - 8 DUT - 130 DU - 1 national diploma program in interpreting (Diplôme National de Guide Interprète National) - 32 doctoral specialities
- ◆ French language courses
Yes - CUEF Perpignan offers year-round instruction in French language: www.cuef.fr
- ◆ Programs for international students
Yes - Program in French language for academic purposes
- ◆ Programs in English
Yes - Only for the Master Erasmus Mundus - DU program in legal English
- ◆ Registration fees/year (for information only)
Licence : 189 euros - Masters : 261 euros - Doctorat : 396euros + 215 euros (Social Security)
- ◆ Postal address
Université de Perpignan - Service Universitaire des Relations Internationales - Bat.A - 52, avenue Paul Alduy 66 860 Perpignan cedex

<http://www.univ-perp.fr>

Member of Campus France Forum