UNIVERSITÉ RENNES 2

Rennes 2 University, successor to the faculty of letters established at Rennes in 1810, is proud of its tradition and resolutely oriented toward the future. The university enrolls 22,000 students and employs a faculty of 650 professors and instructors. From remote sensing and multimedia to land-use planning and art books, from the humanities and social sciences to the biomechanics of work, Rennes 2 preserves the traditional balance of the disciplines while continuously improving the quality of campus life. A strong proponent of international academic ties, Rennes 2 offers instruction in 21 languages and maintains close relations with like-minded teaching and research institutions on five continents.
