Founded in 1966, the University of Rouen Normandy is composed of six learning and research faculties, two university institutes of technology (IUTs), a preparatory institute for the general administrative exam (IPAG), a business school (IAE), an engineering school known as «école d’ingénieurs ESITech» and one Teachers’ Training Institute (ESPE). As demonstrated, the University of Rouen Normandy is characterized by a particularly rich array of multidisciplinary programs. 29,000 total students, of which 3,300 are international students and 2,500 faculty and staff.

◆ MAIN PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

The university offers programs in the following sectors:
- Law
- Economics and management
- Humanities and social sciences
- Science, technology
- Health (Médicine and Pharmacy)
- Sport Sciences
- Physics, mathematics and computing for engineers
- Chemistry, biology, health
- Social sciences and humanities
- Environment, management of natural and industrial risks

◆ RESEARCH

The University of Rouen Normandy has 40 advanced research laboratories, of which 15 are affiliated with the Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique (CNRS) or the Institut National de la Santé et de la Recherche Médicale (INSERM). They also collaborate closely with the laboratories of Caen and Le Havre, which are also part of «Normandie Université», as well as with many national and international networks. The laboratories of the Université de Rouen Normandie have nearly 50 bilateral teaching and research agreements with 40 countries.

◆ LOCATION

Strategically located halfway between Paris and the sea, 1h away from the English channel, 1h30 away from Paris, Rouen is a very famous middle age city, birthplace of Impressionism and an inspiration for countless artists, painters and authors.

www.univ-rouen.fr